² Pew identified 12 fees that are common to most accounts, as reflected in its model checking account disclosure box at www.pewtrusts.org/safechecking.
