

Berkeley HIA Course

Edmund Seto, PhD
School of Public Health
UC Berkeley

UC Berkeley HIA Course

- Offered since 2006
- Project-oriented “Studio” format
- Current class: 25 graduate students (City Planning, Public Health, Public Policy)
- Content:
  - Process
  - Qualitative/Quantitative Methods
  - Participation
  - Institutionalization
  - Evaluation

UCBHIG HIA Case Studies

- Oak to Ninth
- MacArthur BART Transit Oriented Development
- Port of Oakland Growth
- AB32 Climate Change Mitigation
- SF HOPE Public Housing Redevelopment
- CA High Speed Rail
- SB375 Regional Land Use and Transportation Planning

HIA Internships

Training is an integral component of HIA institutionalization

Other Models

- University Courses
- Professional Courses
- Technical Assistance
- CDC Training
- Online Courses

No “one size fits all”

Working with CDC to evaluate the efficacy of current HIA trainings

Learn more about what evidence exists for effective HIA learning in this session...

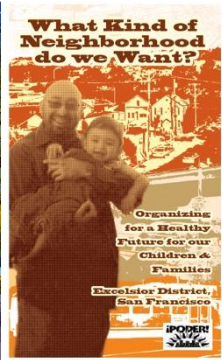

Joseph Schuchter

Evaluation of HIA Training and Capacity-Building in the United States

Breakfast Roundtable, April 4 , 8:30am

Thanks

CDC Prevention Resource Center
HIA Special Interest Project

Edmund Seto

seto@berkeley.edu

<http://sites.google.com/site/ucbhia/>