1. 10 percent of support limitation. Pew normally receives substantial support from a variety of public sources. Pew's public support percentage is 17.05 percent, well above the 10 percent threshold.
2. Attraction of public support. Pew is organized and operated to attract new and additional support on a continuous basis. Pew maintains a continuous and bona fide development program and carries on activities designed to attract support from individuals, foundations, and other charitable organizations. Pew's full-time development staff is actively involved in seeking financial support from diverse sources on an ongoing basis and works consistently to identify and qualify more prospective donors.

Pew's programs and activities have broad appeal to members of the public that share an interest in Pew's many different areas of focus. Current projects seek, among other things, to strengthen environmental protections; conserve our oceans and wild lands; improve public and behavioral health; ensure Americans have access to a safe, affordable consumer financial marketplace; and help states invest in programs that provide the strongest returns to their taxpayers.
3. Sources of support. Pew is supported by a diverse and representative group of donors. During fiscal year 2022, Pew received grants and contributions from 54 donors, including individuals, public charities, private foundations, and corporations.

5. Availability of public facilities or services; public participation in programs or policies. Pew conducts extensive and ongoing programs and activities that are designed to inform the public, the media and policymakers about the subjects of its research and analysis. Part I, Line 2:
Pew's procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds outside the United States are modeled after the "expenditure responsibility" rules (see Treas. Reg. 53.4945-5) and are designed to fulfill the purposes of expenditure responsibility, namely that grant funds are expended solely for their intended charitable purpose, that Pew receives complete reports regarding how the funds were spent, and that Pew is able to provide full reports to the IRS regarding the granted funds. First, to help assure that the grantee will use the grant for proper purposes, Pew conducts a pre-grant inquiry into each potential grantee, which includes diligence regarding the grantee's programs, experience, finances, management, and reputation; verification of the grantee's corporate and tax status; and a search of the U.S. Treasury Department Office of Foreign Asset Control's (OFAC) sanctions program listings to confirm that the grantee is neither a known terrorist nor has ties to known terrorists. Second, Pew enters into a written grant agreement with each grantee, in which Pew secures the grantee's commitments: (i) to use the grant funds solely for purposes consistent with Pew's tax-exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; (ii) not to use any grant funds directly or indirectly to support or oppose any candidate for public office or to provide a benefit to any political party or candidate; (iii) to maintain records of the grantee's receipts and expenditures and make its books and records available for review by Pew at reasonable times; (iv) to submit complete reports, on a reasonable basis throughout the term of the grant, on the expenditure of grant funds and progress toward accomplishing the purposes of the grant; (v) to allow Pew, at Pew's discretion and expense, to conduct evaluations and audit records related to the grantee's grant-funded activities and use of grant funds; and (vi) to repay any portion of the grant that is not used for the charitable purpose of the grant. Pew also requires each grantee to certify in writing that it does not and will not promote or engage in violence or terrorism and shall at all times comply with the relevant laws prohibiting transactions with individuals and organizations associated with terrorism. Third, in accordance with the terms of the grant, Pew's grantees must submit periodic narrative and financial reports throughout the term of the grant, and a final report at the end of the grant term, describing how the grant funds were spent and what was accomplished and providing a reasonably detailed account of the activities conducted in furtherance of the agreed-upon charitable objectives. Pew also may exercise oversight over the grantee through other means designed to ensure all grant funds are used appropriately, such as in-person site visits, monitoring, and evaluation.

Part I, Line 3:
Non-employee expenditures are reported based on the domicile of the vendor to which funds are transferred. Employee expenditures are reported based on the employee's home location. Pew does not separately track indirect expenditures to foreign activities. As such, per the IRS Form 990 instructions, the amounts presented in Schedule $F$ do not include an indirect allocation of expenditures.

First, to help assure that the grantee will use the grant for proper purposes, Pew conducts a pre-grant inquiry into each potential grantee, which includes diligence regarding the grantee's programs, experience, finances, management, and reputation; verification of the grantee's corporate and tax status; and a search of the U.S. Treasury Department Office of Foreign Asset Control's (OFAC) sanctions program listings to confirm that the grantee is neither a known terrorist nor has ties to known terrorists. Second, Pew enters into a written grant agreement with each grantee, in which Pew secures the grantee's commitments: (i) to use the grant funds solely for purposes consistent with Pew's tax-exempt status under section $501(\mathrm{c})(3)$ of the internal revenue code; (ii) not to use any grant funds directly or indirectly to support or oppose any candidate for public office, to provide a benefit to any political party or candidate, or for any other noncharitable purpose; (iii) to maintain records of the grantee's receipts and expenditures and make its books and records available for review by Pew at reasonable times; (iv) to submit complete reports, at least one per year, on the expenditure of grant funds and progress toward accomplishing the purposes of the grant; (v) to allow Pew, at Pew's discretion and expense, to conduct evaluations and audits of the grantee's operations, records, and use of grant funds; and (vi) to repay any portion of the grant that is not used for the charitable purpose of the grant. Pew also requires each grantee to certify in writing that it does not and will not promote or engage in violence or terrorism and shall at all times comply with the relevant laws prohibiting transactions with individuals and organizations associated with terrorism. Third, in accordance with the terms of the grant, Pew's grantees must submit narrative and financial reports at least once per year, and a final report at the end of the grant term, describing how the grant funds were spent and what was accomplished and providing a reasonably detailed account of the activities conducted in furtherance of the agreed-upon charitable objectives. Pew may also exercise oversight over the grantee through other means designed to ensure all grant funds are used appropriately, such as in-person site visits, monitoring, and evaluation.

Pew makes various matching gifts throughout the year. Matching gifts to organizations in excess of $$ 5,000$ are reported on Schedule I, Part II. Matching gifts are administered by a third party that ensures gifts are made only to IRC Section 501(c)(3) organizations (except for private nonoperating foundations). Pew does not require recipients of matching gifts to report on the use of these funds.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:
Pew's Form 990 is thoroughly prepared and rigorously reviewed before it is filed with the IRS. After the Form 990 is internally prepared by finance department staff members, the return is reviewed by senior management, including the Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer; Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary; and the President and CEO; as well as outside independent certified public accountants and outside legal counsel. Following this review, the draft Form 990 is provided to the audit committee of the Pew board of directors for a pre-filing review. The audit committee meets to discuss the draft Form 990 and significant changes or differences from the prior year's Form 990, and ask questions regarding the return. Attending the meeting with the audit committee are: the independent certified public accountants; the Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer; the Senior Director, Legal Affairs and Deputy General Counsel; and other members of the finance department. After the Form 990 has been reviewed by and discussed with the audit committee, and their feedback has been incorporated, the return is distributed to all members of the Pew board of directors for review before the return is filed with the IRS. Board members are encouraged to contact the Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer with any questions.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: Pew regularly and consistently monitors and enforces compliance with its conflict of interest policies for officers, directors, and staff. On an annual basis, all officers, directors, and employees certify that they have read and will continue to follow the applicable conflict of interest policy and complete a form disclosing their potential conflicts. Pew's board and officer conflict of interest policy requires the following of all directors and officers: (1)impartial fulfillment of their roles in Pew's affairs; (2)disclosure of potential financial or other conflicts of interest involving Pew; (3)review of all affiliations; and (4)recusal and abstention in all situations of actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest. Pew's staff conflict of interest policy requires the following of all employees: (1)impartial fulfillment of their roles in Pew's affairs; (2)avoidance of impropriety or the appearance of impropriety; (3)disclosure of potential financial or other conflicts of interest involving Pew; (4)review by management of affiliations with outside organizations, with subsequent board review as appropriate; and (5)recusal and abstention in all situations of actual or perceived conflict of interest. These and other requirements are monitored, reviewed and resolved on an ongoing basis pursuant to the applicable conflict of interest policy.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:
Annually, the compensation committee of the board of Pew engages an independent compensation consultant to conduct a compensation analysis for the organization's officers and key employees, and a separate compensation analysis for the organization's CEO. As part of these analyses, the independent compensation consultant identifies, gathers, and analyzes appropriate comparability data upon which the committee and the full board rely to assess the reasonableness of the total proposed compensation (including benefits) of the officers, the key employees, and the CEO. Once the compensation analyses are complete and documented in reports, they are provided to Pew's compensation committee for review and consideration, together with written opinions from the compensation consultant that the proposed compensation arrangements for the officers, key employees, and CEO are "reasonable" within the meaning of Treas. Reg. 53.4958-4(b)(1)(ii)(a). The committee reviews the compensation consultant's analyses and opinions at a meeting, in which the consultant participates and responds to questions, and recommends any prospective compensation adjustments to the full board for approval. The full board makes annual decisions with respect to proposed compensation for officers and key employees based upon the data in the relevant report and the opinion of the compensation consultant that the proposed compensation is reasonable. These decisions, and the bases for these decisions, are contemporaneously documented in the minutes. The board also makes annual decisions regarding the proposed compensation increase and resulting total compensation for the CEO based on the board's assessment of the CEO's performance, the data in the CEO compensation report, and the opinion of the compensation consultant that the proposed CEO compensation is reasonable. The board's decision regarding the CEO's compensation, and the basis for its decision, are documented in the minutes. The board members who vote on compensation for officers, key employees, and the CEO do not have a conflict of interest with respect to these compensation arrangements.

The expenses related to the rental activity are included in various line items in Part IX, functional expenses.

Form 990, Part VIII, Line 6d, Column D:
Pew leases certain space at 901 E street NW, Washington, DC to an entity that is not exempt from federal income taxes under IRC Section 501(c)(3). However, less than 15 percent of the building is leased to this tenant. Therefore, as allowed under IRC Section 512(b) and Treas. Reg. $1.514(\mathrm{~b})-1(\mathrm{~b})(1)(\mathrm{ii})$, this revenue, net of related expenses, is excluded from unrelated business income, and Pew has reported the net rental income on Form 990, Part VIII, line 6d, column (d). In addition, Pew subleases space to entities in office space that it rents at other locations. The space is subleased at or below Pew's cost. One of the sublease agreements includes the tenant's right to use furnishings owned by Pew. Pew considers the net value of the personal property to be less than 10 percent of the total rents under the lease. Therefore, as allowed under IRC Section $512(\mathrm{~b})$ and Treas. Reg. 1.514(b)-1(b)(1)(ii), this revenue, net of related expenses, is excluded from unrelated business income, and Pew has reported the net rental income on Form 990, Part VIII, line 6d, column (d).
